

RESSNEWS

Valentine's Day crossword

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

1. In Greek mythology, the god of love is known as what?
2. William Shakespeare mentions Valentine's Day in which of his plays?
3. From where was the oldest-known Valentine's Day message sent?
4. What is a popular symbol used on Valentine's Day?
5. Feb. 14 is celebrated as National Chocolate Day in which country?
6. In what country is Valentine's Day known as "Friend's Day"?
7. What state produces most of America's red roses?
8. What is the meaning of the XOXO abbreviation on Valentine's Day cards?
9. Which country is credited with starting the tradition of exchanging love notes on Valentine's Day?
10. What do people usually write on Valentine's Day cards to their loved ones?
11. What does SWALK stand for?
12. According to Roman mythology, who is the son of Mercury and Venus?
13. What's the French word for love?
14. What insanely popular website debuted on Valentine's Day in 2005?
15. What do men usually give women on Valentine's Day?

GRAMMYS 2025

Grammys are awards presented by the Recording Academy of the United States to recognize outstanding achievements in the music industry. They are regarded by many as the most prestigious and significant awards in the music industry worldwide. They were originally called the Gramophone Awards, as the trophy depicts a gilded gramophone. The first Grammy Awards ceremony was held on May 4, 1959.

This years Grammy's were held on February 2.

Our editors (Klara, Ela, Daria) made predictions of the winners.

Here you can see how they did:

Record of the Year

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Not Like Us	Good Luck, Babe!	Espresso	Not Like Us

K: YAYYYY

Album of the Year

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Cowboy Carter	Cowboy Carter	Brat	Cowboy Carter

K & E: Thank you Beyoncé

Song of the Year

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Please Please Please	Birds of a Feather	Good Luck, Babe!	Not Like Us

Everyone: This one again?????

Best New Artist

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Sabrina Carpenter	Chappell Roan	Raye	Chappell Roan

E: Yeeeee so happy for her!

Best Pop Solo Performance

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Good Luck, Babe!	Espresso	Good Luck, Babe!	Espresso

E: Well deserved (I'm so good at this game).

Best Pop Duo/Group Performance

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Guess	Die with a Smile	Guess	Die with a Smile

E: Another one?! This was purely my instinct, was rooting for Guess.

Best Rap Song

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Carnival	Not Like Us	Not Like Us	Not Like Us

E: Expected.

Best Music Video

K:	E:	D:	Winner
Houdini	Fortnight	360	Not Like Us

Everyone: Why?

OUR TOP 3
LOOKS!!!

TOMMY CA$H and fashion week

Everyone knows what Fashion Week is. It is a week of fashion shows of many brands and designers showing off their clothes and looks. A big part of the show is the “show” itself, meaning the way they present the looks and clothes.

Another thing we know about fashion week is that many celebrities attend them by getting invited. They want to dress to impress and be seen. One celebrity in particular takes “dressing to impress” to a next level. And it is Tommy Cash.

For those that do not know who Tommy Cash is, he is an Estonian rapper and singer and obviously very flamboyant person. He is not scared to experiment with music nor fashion. You may know him for his song Winaloto or a feature in a song Give Me Your Money by a Russian band Little Big. Recently there has been talk about him representing Estonia in Eurovision 2025 and many of his fans are really encouraging it. Personally I do not know anyone better than him for this role.

But when talking about his fashion choices for fashion week, he is definitely not the one that is going to be left unnoticed. With that in mind, his looks have received a lot of criticism, one outfit in particular. He went to a Diesel show dressed up as a homeless person and received a lot of hate, for which he had to explain the meaning behind his outfit:

“Homelessness remains a massive issue worldwide, and even in the wealthiest countries like the United States, a significant population struggles to afford basic necessities and decent clothing. The fashion industry has appropriated their worn, baggy attire, giving rise to the controversial ‘homeless chic’ style. What distinguishes homeless people’s clothing choices is rooted in practicality, availability, affordability, and comfort, while those who adopt the ‘homeless chic’ look do so for vanity and status, often investing in expensive items.”

With that being said, he wants to share a message/spread awareness with his expressive looks, because otherwise people would not notice and the message would not be heard. Personally, I am a big fan of his and I think that it is great that artists are speaking out about serious issues. In the most recent fashion week shows he decided to collab with a Dutch musician Joost Klein and have matching outfits.

FEBRUARY CALENDAR FOR THE US

February 2: Groundhog Day

Groundhog Day, celebrated on February 2, is a quirky tradition where a groundhog is said to predict the weather for the coming weeks. If the groundhog sees its shadow, there will be six more weeks of winter; if not, an early spring is on the horizon. This custom has its roots in ancient European weather lore, but it became a popular North American tradition in the 19th century. While it's lighthearted fun, Groundhog Day symbolizes the hope for warmer days ahead as we move through winter.

February 9: Super Bowl Sunday (2025)

Super Bowl Sunday, held on February 9 in 2025, is a major sporting event that attracts millions of viewers. This championship game of the National Football League (NFL) is celebrated with high-energy games, halftime show, which will be performed by Kendrick Lamar, and a variety of commercials. It's also a time for friends and families to gather for delicious snacks, drinks, and great conversation. Whether you're a die-hard fan or just in it for the fun, Super Bowl Sunday is a day of excitement and tradition across the United States.

February 12: Abraham Lincoln's Birthday

Abraham Lincoln, the 16th president of the United States, was born on February 12, 1809, in a one-room log cabin in Kentucky. Lincoln is remembered for leading the country through the Civil War and working to end slavery with the Emancipation Proclamation. His legacy as a visionary leader and champion of equality continues to inspire. On his birthday, we reflect on his remarkable life and contributions, honoring a man who shaped the future of the nation.

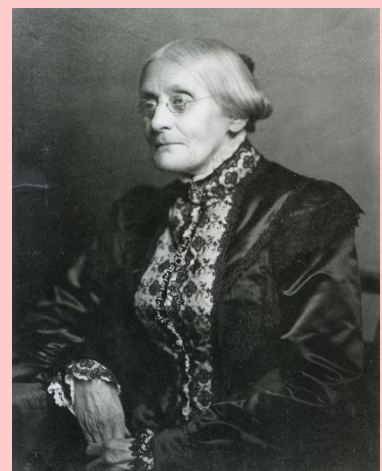

February 14: Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day, celebrated on February 14, is a worldwide occasion dedicated to love and affection. The day is often marked by exchanging cards, flowers, and chocolates with loved ones. Its roots go back to ancient Roman times, but the modern version has evolved into a celebration of romantic love. Whether it's a grand gesture or a simple note, Valentine's Day offers a chance to express feelings of love and appreciation to those we hold dear.

February 15: Susan B. Anthony's Birthday

On February 15, we honor the birth of Susan B. Anthony (1820), a pivotal figure in the American women's suffrage movement. Known for her tireless work advocating for women's rights, Anthony helped lead the charge for the passage of the 19th Amendment, granting women the right to vote. Her legacy continues to inspire movements for gender equality and social justice. Susan B. Anthony's birthday serves as a reminder of the ongoing fight for equal rights and recognition.

February 15: National Flag of Canada Day

National Flag of Canada Day, also on February 15, celebrates the iconic flag of Canada, which was adopted in 1965. The red maple leaf at the center symbolizes Canada's natural beauty, unity, and peace. This day honors both the flag and the country's spirit, bringing Canadians together to reflect on their national identity and pride. National Flag of Canada Day is a time for Canadians to celebrate their heritage, history, and shared values.

February 17: Presidents' Day

Presidents' Day, observed on the third Monday in February, honors the birthdays of George Washington and other U.S. presidents. Although originally established to celebrate Washington's birthday (on February 22), the holiday has expanded to recognize all U.S. presidents. It's a time to reflect on the leadership, achievements, and legacies of the nation's leaders, and it's also a popular day for sales and discounts. Presidents' Day is a symbol of American history and patriotism.

February 28: Ramadan

Ramadan, the ninth month of the Islamic calendar, begins on February 28 this year. It is a sacred time for Muslims, marked by fasting from dawn to sunset, prayer, reflection, and community. Ramadan commemorates the first revelation of the Quran to the Prophet Muhammad and is a period of spiritual growth and self-discipline. During this month, Muslims focus on compassion, charity, and gratitude, with the celebration of Eid al-Fitr marking the end of Ramadan with a joyous feast.

Celebrity quiz

On this page you will find faces of two celebrities merged together. Your task is to figure out which 2 celebrities it is.

The correct answers are at the end of the magazine.

- A) Tom Holland and Jake Gyllenhaal
- B) Zac Efron and Ryan Reynolds
- C) Ben Affleck and Andrew Garfield
- D) Ryan Gosling and Timothée Chalamet

- A) Kevin Hart and Anthony Mackie
- B) Jamie Foxx and Will Smith
- C) Drake and Tupac
- D) Samuel Jackson and Will Smith

- A) Margot Robbie and Rachel Zegler
- B) Sydney Sweeney and Tessa Thompson
- C) Brie Larson and Zendaya
- D) Chris Hemsworth and Michael B. Jordan

- A) Vin Diesel and Dwayne Johnson
- B) Johnny Sins and Jack Black
- C) Dwayne Johnson Jack Black
- D) The Rock and John Cena

Celebrity quiz answers

A) Tom Holland and Jake Gyllenhaal

D) Samuel L. Jackson and Will Smith

C) Zendaya and Brie Larson

C) Dwayne Johnson and Jack Black

A photograph of a light brown teddy bear sitting on a bed with a striped sheet. To the right of the bear is a bouquet of flowers, including pink roses, white chrysanthemums, and red carnations, wrapped in pink paper. A small white card with handwritten text is placed in front of the bear.

WILL YOU
BE My...
VALENTINE?
♡♡♡♡♡♡

And don't forget about our prom and the afterparty!
Both taking place on February 28